Foreword

Students come and go, but New Bern High remains the same. The lockers may be painted, additions may be made, or a new path may be worn, but the spirit of the school has kept intact with the years. We walk through the halls, unaware of the thousands who have gone before us, entering the classrooms, learning the same lessons, observing the same traditions, and feeling the same emotions. We do not often consider those who will follow us, unaware, also.

There is one who knows all this. Bruno, our ever-loyal mascot, has gained vast knowledge about us, since his arrival a few years ago. He constantly hears our chatter and sees our faces, and can tell at a glance whether we failed a geometry test or missed history for assembly. He has seen the mad rush between classes, at lunch, and after school so often that he can predict exactly when the bell will ring. He has seen more pep rallies than any cheerleader, heard more concerts than any band or choir, and learned more about the students than any of us who know ourselves. Bruno feels instinctively the excitement in the mind of a freshman for the first time, and shares the reflections of each senior leaving on graduation night.

With great respect for his wisdom, and knowing that he, in a sense, is one of us, we consulted Bruno in the making of the 1966 annual. His observations on the different phases of the life at New Bern High School are well worth thinking about . . .

He sends the class of 1966 away
On to bigger and better things.

We are graduating . . .
With a tear, but with a
Triumphant smile.
And we leave behind us
Everything, that is
New Bern High School . . .
Ball games . . . yelling ourselves hoarse,
Win or lose. The Bear Cub . . .
Homecoming . . . Junior-Senior . . .
Lick 'em Day . . . and every day.
Assemblies . . . Bruno . . . Clubs . . . Projects
Pep rallies . . . elections . . . trips . . .
And a rising school spirit.
Classes and tests, good and bad . . .
Our teachers and advisors . . . Luke . . .
Even lunch period.
Discoveries we made
About algebra and
About people.
Parties, dances . . . long talks . . . plans . . .
All the fun and excitement . . .
Wonderful friendships we shared . . .
The endless times we laughed . . .
And the times we cried.
All now make a memory
Of the four most memorable years
Of our lives.
We came to love
New Bern High School,
Regard it as our own,
With a deep pride.
No . . .
We may leave New Bern High
For bigger things . . .
But never, never Better.

Dedication

We walked into your class as freshmen, nervous and afraid of what we did not know. Through your calm and understanding manner, with the reassurance of your friendly, ever present smile, we gained confidence in our roles here. As we really became a part of New Bern High School, you remained our true friend. We have already seen that the knowledge you gave us in general science is invaluable.

Outside the classroom you have organized the Health Careers Club and have been its able sponsor. The general science section of the Science Fair has been your responsibility. Under your leadership, our clinic has been made attractive and pleasant.

For all your activities and the outstanding way you handle each task before you, we respect you.

Away from us, your interests are your home, family, children, and especially your five grandchildren. We feel that this could not be otherwise, for it is a reflection of your character. Your concern is always for those around you, not for yourself. In each student, no matter how hopeless he may seem to others, you can find the best. Just as you always have a kind word for everyone, all who know you can name you only with praise. Faculty and students alike recognize the strength and depth of your character, and for this, we love you.

So—

For all you have given of yourself,
For all you have done for us
For simply being what you are—
Mrs. Mary Sawyer,
Thank you.

"Hail to thee, O New

Student Life

Bern High School."

"I ask of you all you

Juniors Enjoy Many and Varied Activities

Our Junior Year has been filled with many exciting moments. Some of these have been Jr.-Sr., getting our class rings, and selling more magazines than any other class.

Pictured below are just a few of these events.

Mr. Blackwell came in November to measure Juniors for class rings.

Juniors work just as hard, if not harder, on floats than anyone.

The Juniors Worked Hard to Create

Spring was arriving at N.B.H.S. The Junior Senior Steering Committee and the entire Junior Class realized that the plans they had been formulating all winter were about to become reality. Seniors speculated about the mystery theme, not really wanting to know. And then the work was upon us. In two of the most hectic weeks of the year, we transformed our modern gym into romantic, beautiful Atlantis. Meanwhile, lunchtime conversation was monopolized with talk of dresses and dates. At last, the big night was here. In shining clean cars we arrived at the fantasyland. Then we were transported by submarine to the ocean floor. A sunken ship, complete with treasure chest, greeted us as we stepped out. Then we noticed all kinds of fish and undersea life around us, a friendly, very pink octopus watching the activity, and above, brilliantly colored giant jellyfish. And there, in the distance, was the ruin of the city. An undersea orchestra played from a huge shell, and the magic had begun. There it was, the lost continent of Atlantis, discovered for one memorable night at New Bern High School.

Many thanks to our advisor, Mr. Jimmy Smith, and to Mr. Karl Kednrick and all the others whose help was invaluable.

We're making a beautiful mess!

. . . Something to Remember

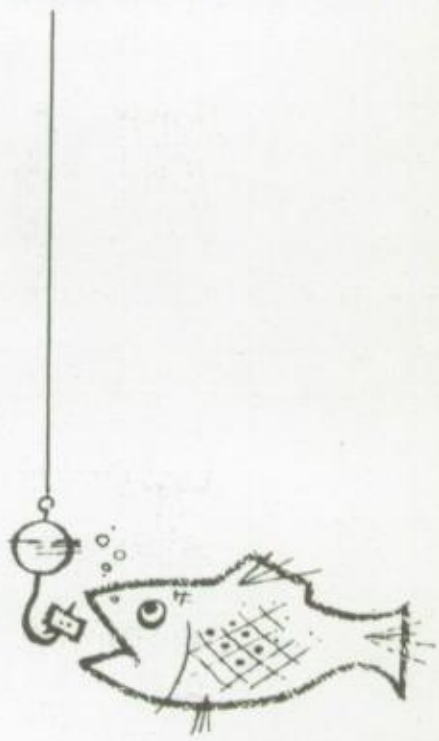
More mess.

Anybody seen an extra head?

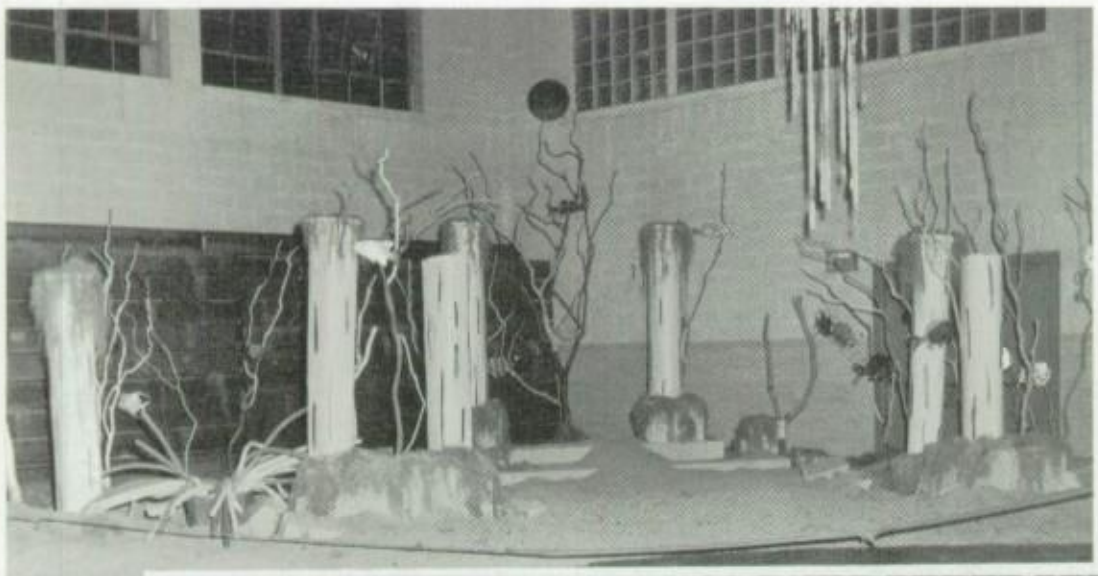
Helen please, we'd rather do it ourselves.

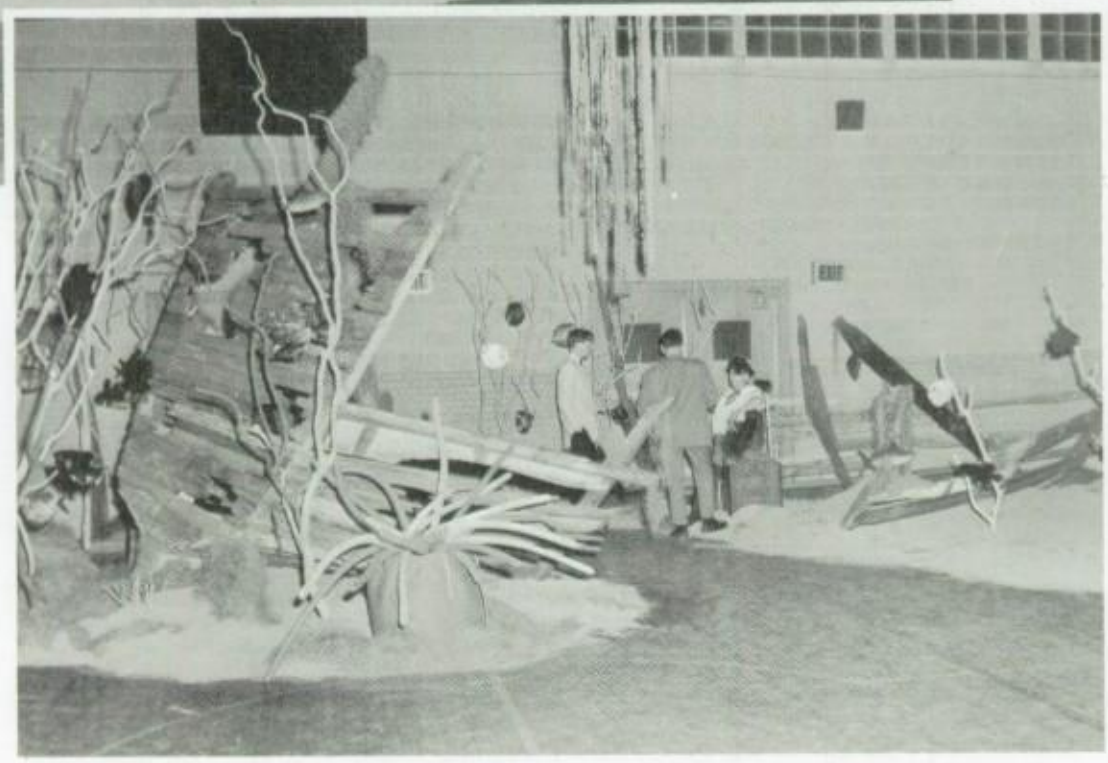


Tom's masterpiece

Workin' hard, boys? Oh yea, sure.

Scenes From the Big Night





The ruins of Atlantis

Guard that treasure, Blackbeard!

While the Junior and Senior Class Presidents and their dates look on, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lewis cut the ribbon, opening the lost world to us.

And of course, the beach.

Homecoming

Homecoming was well celebrated at N.B.H.S. this year. Excitement began to mount with the choosing of the ten candidates for Homecoming Queen by the Senior Class, and with the announcement of the parade theme, "Halloween". It seemed that each day's activity added to our anticipation of Friday. On Pennies for Victory Day we contributed toward a new victory flag. Then we found the foyer graced by baby pictures of our football team. There was a special assembly at which the flag was presented, the candidates were introduced, and the Summits gave a preview of their Friday night entertainment to the tune of "Hang on Sloopy". It was also a pep rally. Lucky "masters" who received a Senior Football player or a Cheerleader on Slave Day had no books to carry for a change. Everyone was asked to wear school colors on Red and Black Day; this was a new idea that really looked good. And all the time the various clubs were hard at work every night trying to construct a prizewinning float. On Friday afternoon the floats, the band, the cheerleaders, and the candidates rode through town putting everyone in high spirits. At the game many were delighted to see friends home from school. Events came to a climax at halftime when Nancy McDaniel, last year's Homecoming Queen stepped onto the field and crowned a radiant Margaret Clark. After the game, the gym was filled with people and the sound of music.

And so went homecoming, 1965.

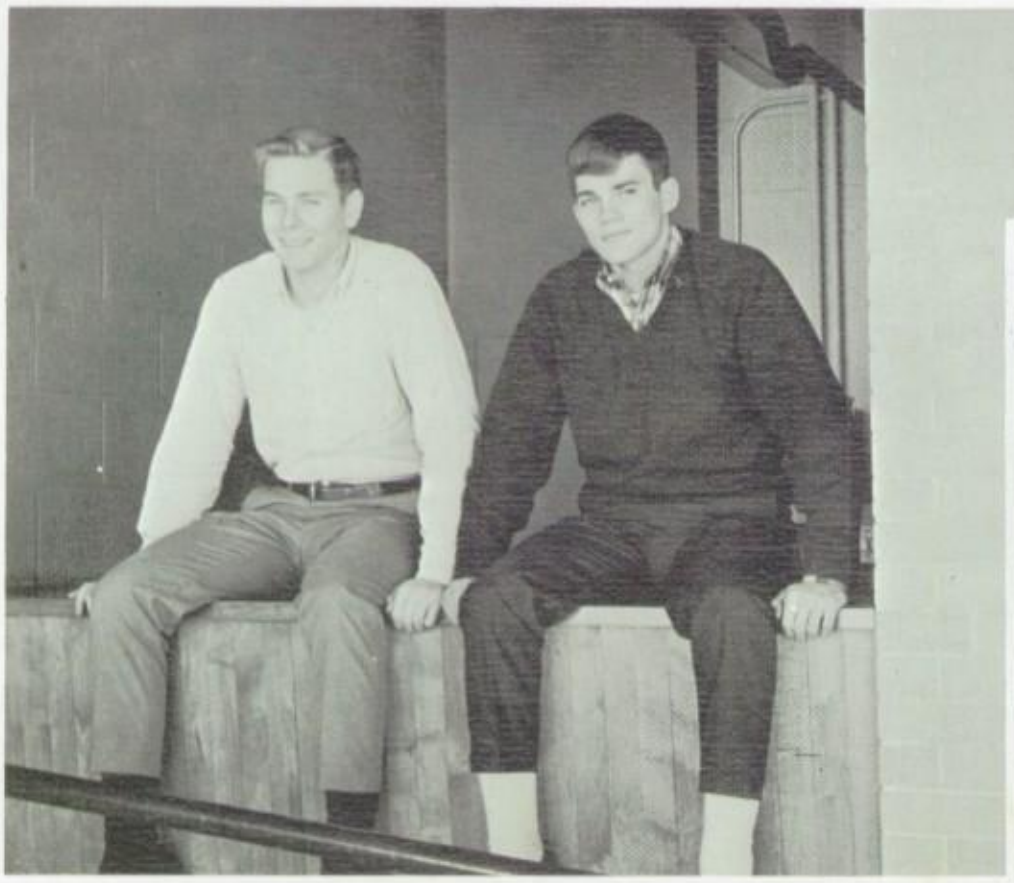
Outstanding Students



Andy and Alan discuss their political future (the Presidency?)

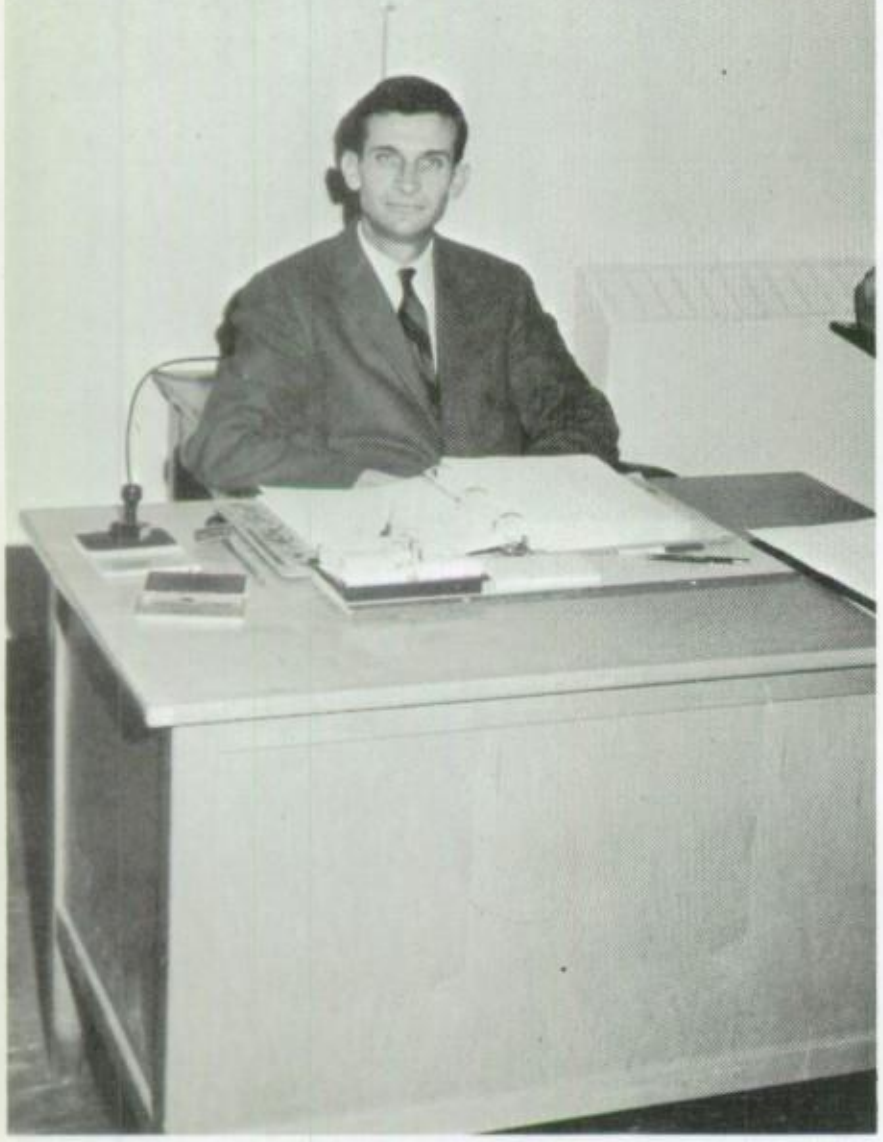
N.B.H.S. can be proud of its representation at these activities last summer: Jennie Kennel and Jan Galasso went to Girls' State, Alan Connelly and Andy Hammond to Boys' State; Cathy Bailey, Rosalie Henderson, and David Erdman attended the Governor's School.

Jan and Jennie smile as if they had a good time—True, girls?

Cathy, David, and Rosalie try to look intellectual for this formal portrait.

Has Rosalie Henderson just done her daily good deed or is she considering doing something bad (Like walking on the grass)? She was voted D.A.R. Good Citizen by the Senior girls.

Don't let this calm picture fool you. We handcuffed Jan Galasso to the post to keep her still. She was rightly chosen Outstanding Teenager of the Year by the Jaycees.



Mr. Bob Lewis received the Jaycees' Outstanding Young Educator Award. Sorry, Coach Lewis, we really didn't mean to classify you as a student.

National Citizenship Conference

Each year a group of New Bern seniors go to Washington, D.C. to attend this conference. They serve as official hosts and hostesses in colonial costumes at several events. This year's group visited the Swiss Embassy and Congressman Henderson. All agreed that it was an enjoyable trip.

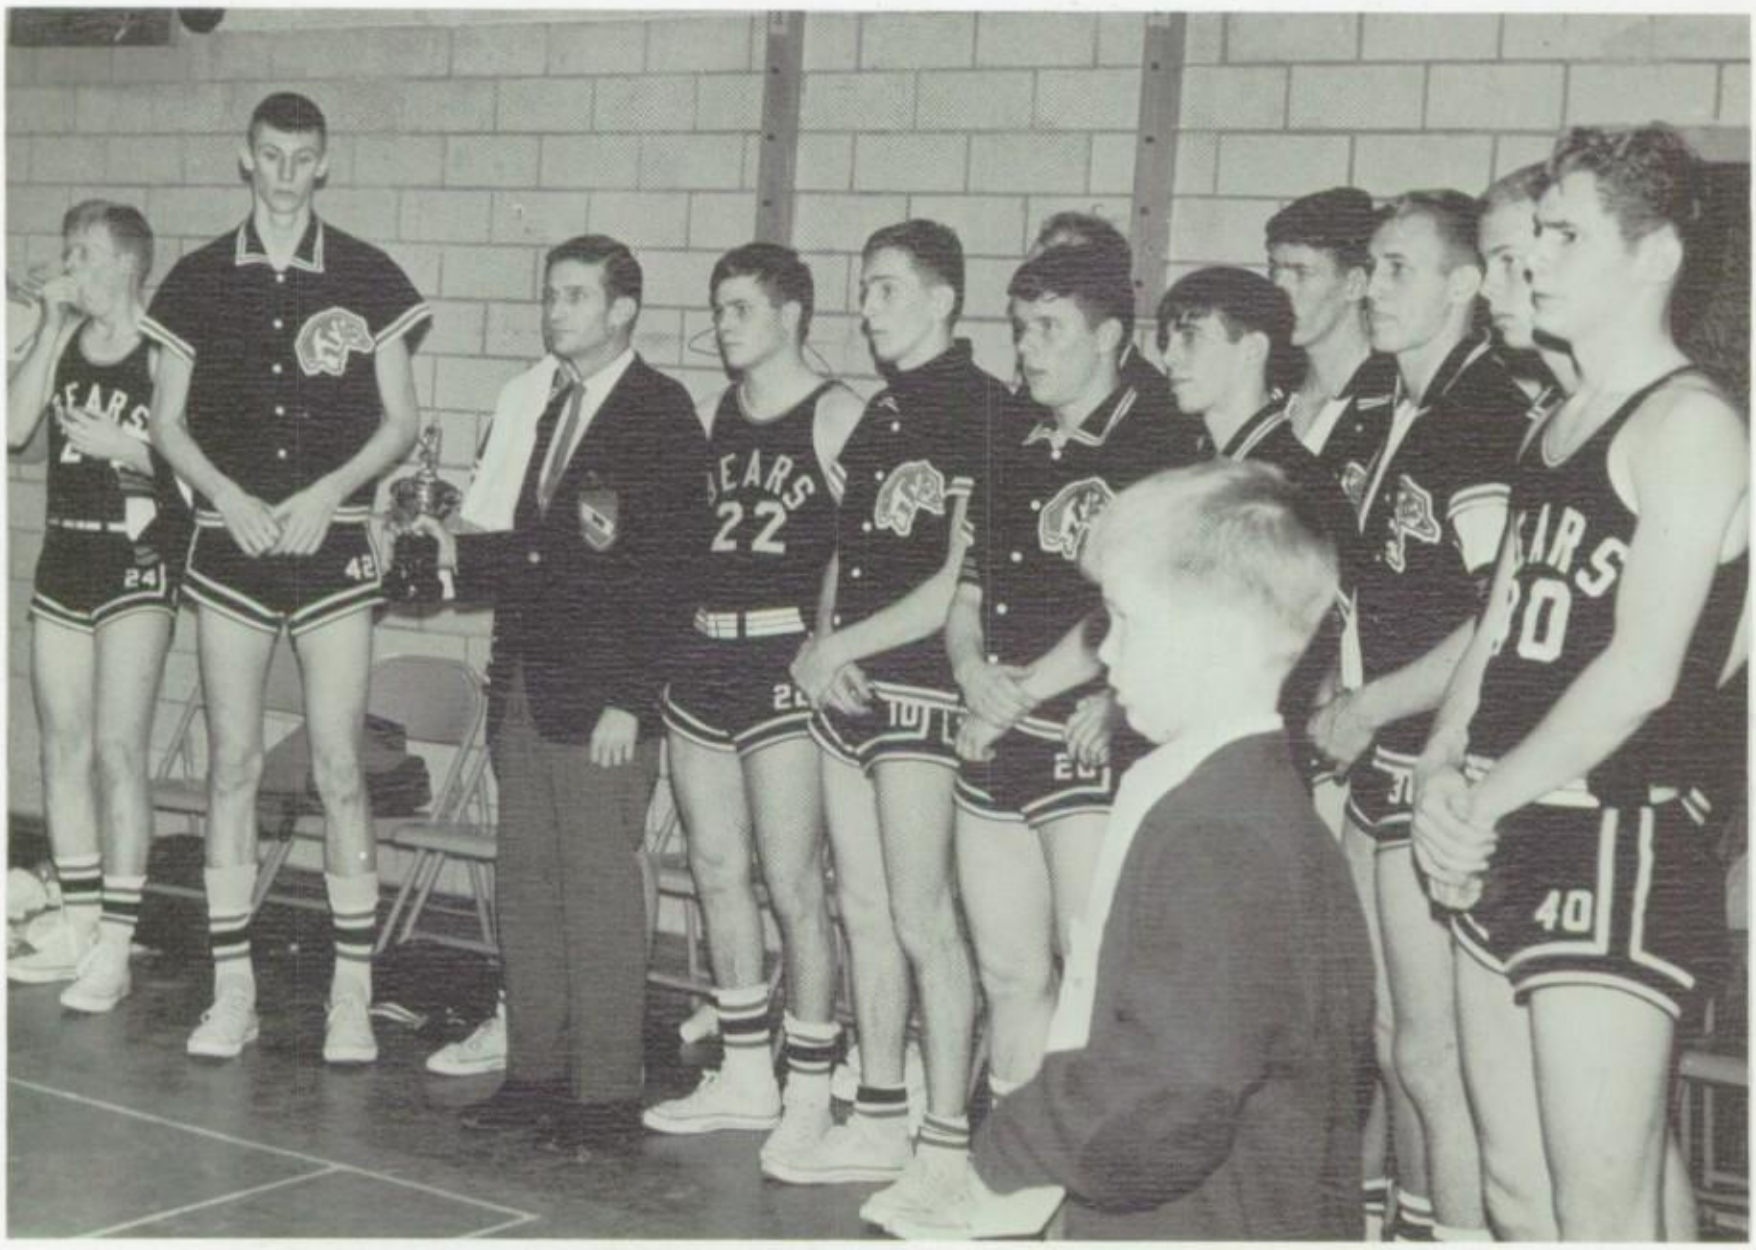
State Tournament

"Durham, Durham, here we come!" New Bern Bears are number one!" This and other chants like it became familiar to New Bern fans in early March last year. For after beating Kinston 57-56 in our last regular game, we were co-champions of the Northeastern Basketball Conference. We then went into the Conference Tournament, finishing second. This made us eligible to compete in the State Tournament in Durham. The Bears did very well, beating Sanford 82-60, then North Forsyth 83-69. Only in the finals were we stopped, by Kinston. Our second place trophy was still something to be mighty proud of, especially when we remembered that we were above about 50 other 3-A teams, that we claimed the Most Valuable Player in the tournament, Bill Bunting, and that we were the only team in TWO years to beat "them".

The weekend as a whole was a great success; quite an experience for the players, cheerleaders, and fans. No matter who wins, everybody knows that our Bears are ALWAYS number one around here.



'65 was a good year for our trophy collection.

Excited fans before the Sanford game—They weren't disappointed!

Congratulations!!!

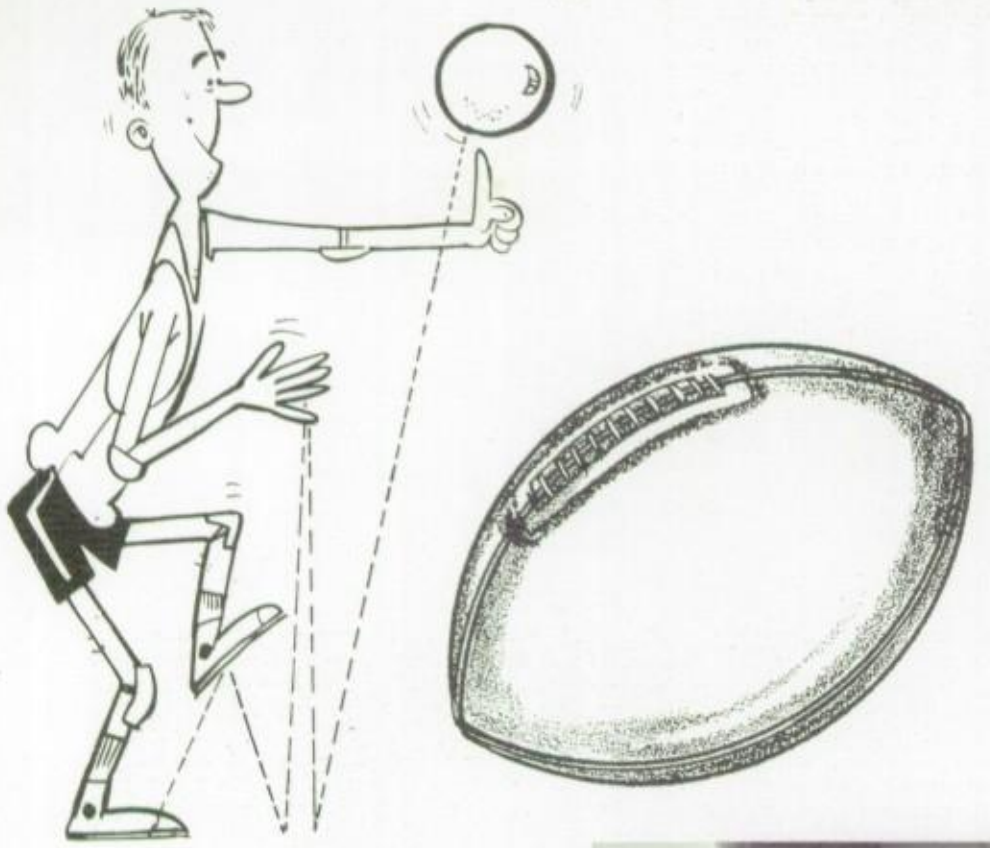
Sports — Always Special



There was a noticeable lack of pep rallies this year due mostly to a superstition that has grown up recently: We always lose when we have one. The one pictured here, however, was enough to make up for the lack. It was even broadcast on the radio. Not only were there the usual cheers, but entertainment and yelling competition; the gym plastered with signs.

The result of all this digging by Mrs. Gardner and her helpers will be a better looking school this spring.

Winning Efforts

Although the New Bern High School Bears had a rough season, several losses could have been won by either team. The winning efforts were far and few between but a 31-7 victory over West Carteret shows that our Bears had fine players and exceptionally good coaches. Richard Stilley and Jimmy Ferebee sparked the offense in the backfield, while Dickie Tuttle was the leading receiver. David Salter, Mark Rossi, James Cole, and Jerry Boykin were top blockers.

Bear Players

The Bears trudged through a dismal season finishing with an 8-13 overall record. Gary Holt led the team in scoring and rebounding while Jim Blythe followed Holt in scoring.

Coach Bob Lewis did a wonderful job in keeping the team's hopes high and the boys appreciate the job he did.

A big four game winning streak highlighted the Bear's season, but after several close losses, the team found it hard to get back on the winning trail. Not pictured on this page are Seniors, Edmund Hughes, and Jerry Boykin, Junior David Reece and Sophomores Calvert Weatherly and Jimmy Whisnant.

Captain Gene Earl Griffin with a great amount of determination placed third in the district matches and went on to place fifth in state competition.

With the experience gained this season the future looks bright for the wrestling team.
